Other proposal topics are being investigated. Deborah Anderson currently is encouraging participation from Egyptologists on a project to encode Ptolemaic signs.

The project's leader is also working to get reviews of various script proposals (including, amongst others, Marchen by Andrew West and Book Pahlavi by Roozbeh Pournader).

SEI has received a grant from the Luce Foundation to organize a meeting in Beijing on Tangut, scheduled to take place December 2013. The goal of the meeting is to help move the Tangut script proposal (N4325, N4326, and N4327) along in the approval process by having experts gather for a face-to-face meeting.
